Steers win Coke County Championship

By Jose Morales

The Robert Lee steers faced off against the Bronte Longhorns in another exciting edition of the Coke County Championship. Robert Lee came out victorious. On a beautiful evening full of homecoming festivities, the Steers would prove to be too much for a visiting Bronte team. Starting off strong, scoring on the game's first play to take the lead, a lead that would not be taken away from them for the rest of the game. Going into the half on top. After the break, the Steers continued with the relentless offense to finish the game early in the 3rd quarter by the mercy rule.

The 4-2 Steers will now enter district play and try to continue their 3-0 run as they face the Irion County Hornets to begin district play. Steer fans, keep on showing your support as the Steers face off against Irion County.
