Steers take down the Falcons

By Jose Morales

The Robert Lee Steers welcomed the Veribest Falcons on October 13 for another exciting edition of Friday Night Lights. The game turned out to be great, full of excitement from beginning to end with the Steers coming out on top. The action started right from the beginning with the Steer defense stopping the Falcons on their first possession, followed by a passing play from senior Brody Pitcock to fellow Senior Brayden Sherwood early in the first quarter to give the Steers the lead. The Steers would continue to build from that touchdown, scoring a couple of more touchdowns before the Falcons scored their first touchdown of the night. The game would continue to go back and forth with both teams scoring one after the other into the half. Coming back from the half the Steers began to gain momentum stopping the Falcons on their first drive of National Honor Society! Bronte High School's National Honor Society Induction Ceremony was held on Tuesday, October 10. Twelve new members were welcomed into the honor society. National Honor Society is a nationally respected organization that recognizes students for scholastic achievement, a history of service and leadership, and positive character traits. New NHS members must have a cumulative grade point average of 90 or above after one year of high school and serve as role models for the four pillars of NHS: scholarship, leadership, character, and service. This year's new members included senior Hailee Mack, junior Cole Knight, and sophomores Cheyenne Allen, Hailey Beal, Brittany Crisp, Grace Jernigan, Treyton McCullough, Joel Pena, Lawsynn Sanchez, Maddie Schoenfield, Aiden Speary, and Raymond Williams.

the second half and scoring right after, followed by a forced fumble caused by Junior Anthony Landeros, and recovered by Brody Pitcock. The Steers would capitalize on the forced error and widen the gap on the scoreboard. A gap that the Steers would maintain to win their second district game and hand the Falcons their first loss of the season.

The Steers extended their winning streak to 6 in a row and are now 7-1 in the season and 2-0 in district play. The Steers will now face the Irion County Hornets in their next district game. Steer fans come on out make that short drive to Mertzon and keep supporting your Robert Lee Steers as they face the Hornets.
