Steers fall to Hornets

By Jose Morales

The Robert Lee Steers traveled to Mertzon to take on the Irion County Hornets and fell short of a victory. It was a game that was hard fought by both sides ending with the Hornets on top ending the Steers winning streak. Irion County got things going with a long run early into the game, but the steers stroked right back with a short run by senior Brayden Sherwood to even things up early in the first quarter. The Steers continued with the hot start stopping the Hornets in their tracks by playing aggressive defense causing an early fumble by Junior Lucas Martinez and recovered by Jaxon Tavarez. The Steers would take advantage of the fumble and score to take the early lead. However, the Hornets wouldn't go down without a fight and came back in the second quarter to finish the half just two points in front of the Steers.
