...Steer Football
 Coming back from the half break the Hornets continued to move the ball downfield scoring on a couple of occasions against a worn Steer defense that didn't let them move without resistance. A tired Steer offense would find a spark late in the fourth quarter with a long Kick Return by Brody Pitcock, but the spark would come too late, and the Steers fell to the Hornets. The Steers are now 7-2 in the season and 2-1 in district play. The Steers will now face the Eden Bulldogs in Robert Lee and try to end the regular season with a win. Steer fans come to show
