Steers fall to Eagles

By Jose Morales

The Robert Lee Steers traveled to Zephyr to take on the Jonesboro Eagles in their first playoff game appearance since 2019 but came up short of a victory. On a cold, rainy, and windy night, the Eagles would be too much for a good but playoff-inexperienced Steer team. The game started with a Steer position that was quickly stopped by a good Jonesboro defense on an interception ran back for a touchdown. The next Steer drive would also come to a quick end as the Eagles obtain a safety to add to the score. The Steers showed remarkable resilience throughout the game trying to find their groove and continued fighting until the end. But it wouldn't be enough as the game continued to be all Eagles to bring the Steers season to an end.

The Steers finished a great season with an 8-3 record overall. Steer fans - thank you so much for the incredible support each and every week to these young men and women as
