APPRAISAL REVIEW BOARD MEMBERS NEEDED

Candidates are currently being sought to serve on the Appraisal Review Board for Sterling County, Texas. The Appraisal Review Board is a group of citizens selected by the Administrative District Judge to hear appeals regarding property tax values in Sterling County. These people listen to evidence provided by the Appraisal District and the property owner and make a decision based on the evidence presented.

Board members serve for terms of two (2) years. Training is provided by the Texas Comptroller's Office. Appraisal Review Board members are not employees of Sterling County or of the Appraisal District. Training and service is compensated at a daily rate set by the board of directors of the Appraisal District.

If you are interested in serving as an Appraisal Review Board member, please contact the Sterling County Appraisal District at 812 4th Street, Sterling City, TX for an application.

Featured Listing!

The view from this centrally located 109 acres sets it apart from all others! You can see five counties! The well is known as the best in the area, making it even more attractive! NRCS collaborated a few years back resulting in new fence on the south and west sides in addition to cross-fencing. Native grasses and wildflowers were seeded after corridor grubbing was done to promote wildlife habitat and hunting. Electric runs the length of the front of the property. Secluded, though conveniently located, you are less than 15 minutes east of Bronte, 20 minutes west of Ballinger, 30 minutes north of San Angelo, and an hour south of Abilene. Nestled within larger ranches, the Colorado River, and FM 3115, you can be confident in knowing your peaceful seclusion will never be disrupted with traffic or noise.
