Bronte Depot Preservation Project to participate in San Angelo Gives

The Bronte Depot Preservation Project will be participating in the annual San Angelo Gives event on May 2.

The preservation project is committed to the promotion of the rich railroad history of Coke County and the preservation of the Depot. There are several projects that need to be addressed as soon as possible, such as the roof and structural damage to the building. The Depot was completed in 1911

Spring Stampede! The 4th annual Spring Stampede was held on Saturday, April 15, at the rec hall in Robert Lee. Those in attendance enjoyed a dinner of street tacos and dancing with music by Coke County's own Backroads West. The RLARestoration Citizen of the Year was also awarded to Edwin Brosh.

and there is also a Texas Historical Plaque that was erected in 1989.

The long-term goal is to have the Bronte Depot available to the county and community for meetings and events; a museum highlighting the county, town, and railroad; handicapped restrooms; small kitchen; and a venue space in the back room. Every donation made during the San Angelo Gives event will make a huge difference in the preservation of the Bronte Depot.
