Early voting to be held through Tuesday

Early voting for the May 6 election is being held through Tuesday, May 2. In Coke County, both schools are holding elections, with Bronte ISD looking to make changes to their Board of Trustees and Robert Lee ISD holding a special election regarding the issuance of a bond.

Bronte ISD has two seats currently up for election. Incumbent John Seales is seeking re-election and is joined on the ballot by Ryan Webb and Blaine Dyess. Early voting will be held at Bronte City Hall through Tuesday from 8 am until 4 pm.

An issuance of a $200,000 bond by Robert Lee ISD for school facilities, new buses and vehicles, including the purchase of necessary sites for school facilities and levying the tax in payment thereof (along with a property tax increase) will be voted on during their special election. Early voting will be held through Tuesday at the Coke County Courthouse from 8 am - 5 pm Monday through Thursday and 8 am - 1 pm on Friday.

On election day, voting can be done at the Coke County Courthouse from 7 am - 7 pm.

Hamburger lunch set for May 1

Coke-Sterling County Farm Bureau will be hosting a hamburger lunch on Monday, May 1, 2023. The hamburger lunch will be at the Coke-

Sterling County Farm Bureau office at 611 Austin St in Robert Lee, Texas from 11 am to 2 pm. Monetary or canned food donations will get you a hamburger, chips, and a drink. They hope to see you there!
