

Grants! The Bronte Educational Enrichment Foundation (BEEF) grant patrol visited Bronte ISD on Friday, September 6. Over $1100 was awarded to six very deserving educators. Grant money this semester will go towards purchasing classroom headphones, sensory items for special education, comfortable library seating for reading, a wireless printer for junior high and high school UIL students, and much more.

there is some left in the bottle. Don't forget the possibility of the meds being expired might cause them not to work today. Did you ever get cough meds made by your grandmother? Yeah, those are the ones. There might be some fermented beverages added to this home made concoction. The old ladies on the Waltons called it the 'recipe'. Did your homemade meds have some of that special 'recipe' in it? Yeah, well old medicine is just as good as this new 'guess it will work' medicine. What say you? Years ago the military dispensaries gave out 'G I Gin' as their panacea. Anyone remember choking down that burning lighter fluid tasting stuff? Does it follow the old idea that the worse it tasted, the better it had to work. Exactly. What is your go to med? I'm wishing you all good health, so you don't have to revert to new or old medicines for a cure. Channel Change. If you are out driving in downtown Robert Lee, take a moment to go by the Robert Lee Care Center. They have the most perfect lawn surrounding their facility. It is rich, weed free, and fully manicured. Well done, whomever you are.

Be well, Gary Karschner
