RL Steers fight off Blackwell Hornets

By Jose Morales
 The Robert Lee Steers defeated the Blackwell Hornets and got back to the winning column after back-to-back losses. The Steers came out of the gate hot. Not wasting any time to get on the scoreboard, and in just the second play of the game, junior Brenner Sherwood found the end zone. This game would continue to be all Robert Lee. Scoring on every drive and stopping the Hornet offense on several occasions to end the game at the half by the mercy rule. The Steers, now 2-2, will now travel to Ackerly and face the Sands Mustangs. Steer fans continue to show your support and make the drive to support your Steers as they face the Sands Mustangs.
