Cross Country! The Bronte ISD Cross Country teams had another successful meet last week competing in Miles. Both of the boys team members were medalists, along with one from the girls team.

Steers secure homecoming win

By Jose Morales
The Robert Lee Steers took on the Zephyr Bulldogs on Friday, September 22 and came out with a win. The Steers got things rolling right away on the game's first drive with a passing touchdown from sophomore Brenner Sherwood to fellow sophomore Wyatt Bosworth. This was followed by a few more scores from the Steers as they took the first half of the game by storm. Taking a commanding lead to finish the first half on top of the Bulldogs. The Steers would find tough going in the second half as injuries started to pile up, and the Bulldogs scoring on several occasions narrowed the lead down. But the Steers would overcome the injuries and scored on several more drives to ensure a homecoming win.

The Steers are now 4-1 and will take on our neighbors to the East the Bronte Longhorns for the 108th edition of the Coke County Championship. Steer fans come on out, make the short drivem and support your Robert Lee Steers as they face Bronte for another edition of one of the best football rivalries in West Texas!
